88-019: Judicial Council as overseer of RSO groups

Abstract:

This bill is to allow the Judicial Council the power to oversee RSO groups and committees. This bill will also allow the Judicial Council to make changes to the governing document for the RSO committees. This bill intends to make sure clubs and organizations are active and spending money in a responsible manner. It would also make sure RSO groups are complying with the rules and regulations set in the governing document.

Acknowledging, The RSO groups and committees are in need of oversight that cannot be managed all by the chief of staff,

Whereas, The RSO groups need oversight in ensuring that they are making financially appropriate and ethical decisions,

Whereas, The Judicial Branch would be the best overseer of the RSO groups and committees, making sure they are within the regulations set forth by the RSO guidelines and making sure that they are using funding appropriately,

Whereas, The Judicial council will also have the power to change items within the guidelines if necessary,

Therefore, Let it be Enacted: The Judicial Council will act as the overseer of RSO committees...
